Japanese Sister City Student-Delegation Visits Wilsonville

Akervall welcomed to City Hall in October a delegation of students and their chaperones from Kitakata, Japan, along with their local community host-sponsors. Students heard about the Wilsonville community, American holiday traditions and how local governments operate in the U.S.

The Sister City exchange program usually occurs over the Halloween holiday, which the students find both fun and fascinating as uniquely American. This year marks the 29th anniversary of the Wilsonville-Kitakata Sister City relationship that commenced in 1988. #### $5,000 Xerox Grant Encourages Local Student Entrepreneurs

The Xerox Community Involvement Program (XCIP) supports nonprofit organizations with both cash contributions and volunteers' time of service. In 2017, XCIP made a grant of $5,000 to Wood Middle School's Jr. Scoop to support the student-run business.

Students in grades 6-8 make ice cream from scratch, using locally grown products whenever possible. Jr. Scoop's operation has been so successful and growing quickly that members could not keep up with demand using a small-batch ice-cream machine.

XCIP's grant was for a new; larger ice-cream machine that increases output to keep-up with current and projected increased demand for several years. Xerox employees visited the Jr. Scoop's operation and worked alongside students and learned how they make their ice creams.

Retired Xerox logistics manager and community volunteer Dick Spence reports, "We had the privilege to see firsthand how the kids run the show, which is the reason it is so successful. This program is so impressive how it is set up in letting the kids run the entire enterprise, we are proud to be a part of it."

The XCIP program also during the year donated $5000 to Habitat for Humanity Willamette West and the labor of 26 Xerox employees who spent the day working at Allen Estates in Beaverton. XCIP recently made a grant of $3,000 to and employees volunteered at Doernbecher Children's Hospital with Candlelighters, which serves dinner to the patients and families in the inpatient Oncology/Hematology unit.

Fun Times at the Fall Harvest Festival

In late October community members gathered on a beautiful autumn day for the annual Wilsonville Harvest Festival to enjoy family-fun activities, horse-drawn carriage rides and crafts and story-telling centered on the historical Stein-Boozier Barn located in the Murase Plaza area of Memorial Park.

Wilsonville Rotary Accepting 'First Citizen' Award Nominations

Rotary Club of Wilsonville is accepting through Dec. 31 nominations for the '2017 First Citizen Award' to honor a local community member or couple for exceptional volunteerism and community service. Since 2002, the Rotary Club has honored 21 'Wilsonville First Citizen' recipients at the annual Heart of Gold celebration each winter; last year's recipient was Mayor Tim Knapp.

A committee made up of Rotary and other Wilsonville community leaders selects a small group of finalists and, ultimately, the 2017 Wilsonville First Citizen.

Rotary Club of Wilsonville's board of directors.

The finalists are announced in late January, and the winner named at the Rotary's Heart of Gold Dinner and Auction on Sat., March 3, 2018, at Wilsonville Holiday Inn.

The theme for this year's event is "Partners in Service," recognizing that to be a successful community we must work together and support aspirations with action. The celebration dinner is 'Western style," with cowboy and cowgirl attire most appropriate!

"The Heart of Gold Dinner and Auction is our annual celebration of Wilsonville's great volunteers and important service projects that benefit the city," said Rotary Club president Tim Crowley. "We need the community's help to identify the next deserving honoree who exemplifies what makes Wilsonville such a wonderful community in which to live and work."

To nominate a community member (or couple) go to www.wilsonvillerotary.com/nominate or send an email to president@wilsonvillerotary.com.

POLICE CHIEF'S CORNER

Season's Greetings and Tips for a Safe Holiday

What an exciting time of the year as the holidays are upon us and for me as I begin my new journey serving as your Chief of Police. Time is flying as I make my way about the community, meeting as many of you as possible.

As we move into the gift-buying and gift-giving holiday season there are, unfortunately, matters of safety and security we need to stay aware of. The holidays are a time of year when we see a surge of car break-ins, thefts and burglaries.

To help make sure your gift purchases remain secure, here are a few tips to maintain a crime-free holiday season:

- Always lock your car when you are out shopping an unlocked door is an open invitation to car prowlers.

- Do not leave gifts or other items of value out in the open where they can be seen—it is very easy to break a window and take those items. The trunk is a better place to store them.
- Park in well-lit, high-traffic areas whenever possible.
- Be aware of your surroundings and those around you as you come and go from parking lots.
- When you shop, return to your car only after you have finished for the day and are about to return
- Remember it only takes seconds for someone to break into your car and steal the contents.
- Report any suspicious activity to us. See something, say something. If not a 911 emergency, call Police Dispatch at 503-655-8211.
- File a crime report if anything is stolen from you or your vehicle.
- Using the free SMART transit bus is a great way to avoid car break-ins when shopping locally.

The Better Business Bureau offers pointers for online shopping, which comes with some risk:

 Research the online merchant before you buy record their web address, physical location, phone number and where they maintain their business license.

- Study the company's refund and return policies before you place an order.
- Avoid using the same passwords that you use on other sites and do not use established numbers, such as your house number, birthdate or your telephone or Social Security number.
- Before you buy make sure you know the price, shipping and handling charges, any product or service guarantees and when you will receive your order.
- Only provide your credit card information online in a secure environment—look for the prefix "https://" in your web

Police Chief Rob Wurpes

- browser to make sure the website is secure.
- Keep a copy of your order and the confirmation number for the purchase.
- Pay by credit card or a pre-paid credit card so your transaction is protected under the Fair Credit Billing Act in case of fraud.
- Theft of packages left on porches is on the rise—know when the package is to be delivered so you can arrange for prompt pick-up off of the porch.
  On another note, December is "Drinking and Drugged Driving Awareness Month." In an average year, 30 million Americans drive drunk and another 10 million drive impaired by illicit drugs. Communities need to continue to demand that friends and family members be responsible and do not drive under the influence of any intoxicants. Ride-sharing services are a great alternative to driving under the influence. We can all work together toward a common goal of reducing incidents of drinking and drugged driving and all benefit from safer roads and a safer community.

SMART Rider Top Travel Destinations

In the past year, SMART surveyed all bus transit routes and gathered 449 completed surveys from passengers. This survey provides helpful information useful to improve public outreach efforts and help in future planning activities to improve transit services for all riders. A few survey highlights show:

• Most travelers are coming from home (67%) and heading to work (52%).

• 36% of SMART riders are traveling to work or shopping within Wilson-ville.

SMART collaborates with Wilsonville employers and community entities to ensure getting to and enjoying Wilsonville businesses for work or shopping is easy, safe and effortless for our riders.

Winter Weather Commuting

Remember to dress warmly as the wait for the bus or train can be delayed in inclement weather. If you can, bring a change of clothes to store at work, including dry socks and shoes.

Here are a few more tips:

- Check for delays and cancellations on-line, before you leave home. Sign-up for rider alerts; download the SPOT ETA App for real-time updates.
- Consider taking transit to work if you normally drive, and avoid commuting in bad weather.
- Sign up for a carpool at driveless connect.com, a ride-matching tool that connects you with people going your way for work and recreation.

Tis the Season to Brighten-Up

This season of short days and inclement weather, bright is in! Be seen wearing light-colored and fluorescent clothing, and step up your look by adding reflective materials and personal lights.

SMART is offering a limited supply of FREE safety lights available at City Hall and the Wilsonville Community Center while supplies last.

TVF&R Wants You to Have a Happy, Safe Holiday Season

ualatin Valley Fire & Rescue (TVF&R) wants L everyone to have a happy and safe holiday season. Use caution with your holiday decorations and preparations — here are some good safety tips.

Cooking

Cooking fires are the leading cause of residential fires. You can minimize your risk.

- Don't leave cooking unattended—turn off burners or set a timer if you leave the room.
- Heat cooking oil slowly, and turn down the heat if it begins to smoke.
- Ensure cooking surfaces are clean and clear of combustibles.
- If you have a stovetop fire, turn off the heat source, slide a lid or cookie sheet over the fire from the side, and leave the pan covered until it has cooled. If you have an oven fire, leave the oven door closed and turn off the oven. If the fire grows larger, get everyone out of the house and call 911.

Candles

- Trim candle wicks to ¼-inch before burning and use sturdy candle holders.
- Keep candles away from decorations and other combustibles.

• Always extinguish candles before going to bed or leaving your home.

 Consider using flameless, battery-operated LED candles.

Holiday Trees

A dry holiday tree is extremely flammable, so it's important to keep your tree fresh.

- Make a fresh cut at the base of the tree before placing it in your stand.
- Immediately add water and check the water level every day. Don't allow the water level to drop below the base of the tree.
- Place your tree away from heat sources.
- Turn off the tree lights when going to bed or leaving the house.
- When the needles begin to fall from your tree, it should be removed.

Holiday Lighting

- Use only UL-approved lights when decorating your home and follow manufacturer instructions.
- Never use light sets with broken sockets, frayed and/or cracked wires, or missing sockets. Any of these hazards may cause an electrical shock or fire.

Creative Ideas to Help Reduce Holiday-Season Waste, Save Money

Tere are some tips to reduce waste and stress, while also saving time and money during the holiday season.

- Give experiences rather than physical things. This could be cooking lessons, a movie or sporting event tickets, a massage at the spa, membership to a museum or a fishing trip.
- Take reusable cloth bags with you for your holiday shopping trips.
- If you do give physical gifts, add an eco-conscious message to a gift that reduces waste — like a reusable water bottle or lunch box.
- Reduce paper waste by opting to send electronic holiday cards. If you are sending holiday cards, purchase recycled-content materials.
- Use earth-friendly giftwrapping alternatives such as old newspapers, posters or maps rather than buying new wrapping paper for presents. Be creative and use old scarves or bandanas to wrap presents. You can even make your gift extra special by wrapping it with your children's artwork!
- Keep gift bags, boxes and holiday gift wrappers for use the following year.
- Save energy and make your lights last longer by turning off or unplugging the lights during the day.

Impaired Drivers Get Home Safely with the SaferRide App

The goal of SaferRide, a mobile phone app, is to reduce fatal and serious traffic-related events by helping impaired drivers get home safely this holiday season. SaferRide, developed by the National Highway Transportation Safety Administration, allows users to call a taxi or a friend and identify where they are, so they can easily be picked up.

The free app is available for Android devices on Google Play, and Apple devices on the iTunes store.

Reports from City Boards and Commissions

City Council Approves Agreement with ODOT for I-5/Wilsonville Road Interchange and Reviews Other Traffic-Congestion Mitigation Plans

uring the Oct. 16 City Council meeting, the Council approved an agreement with the Oregon Dept. of Transportation (ODOT) for a construction project to modify the I-5/Wilsonville Road interchange Exit 283 southbound freeway on-ramp. The approximately $700,000 project adds a third stacking lane to the metered I-5 on-ramp in order to increase capacity to hold vehicles waiting to enter the freeway during evening rush-hour.

The project is part of three congestion-improvement projects totaling an estimated $900,000 in the I-5/ Wilsonville Road/Boones Ferry Road intersection area designed to improve traffic flow and reduce congestion. The other two projects include lengthening the southbound Boones Ferry Road double left-turn lanes onto eastbound Wilsonville Road, which is complete; and reconstructing the southern, signalized entrance/exit to Old Town Square/ Fred Meyer shopping center to include a second travel lane on northbound Boones

During Communications portion of the meeting, Dr. Nagi Naganathan, new President of the Oregon Institute of Technology (OIT), introduced himself to the City Council and presented an update on Oregon Tech's educational and workforce-preparation programs. He reported that 98 percent of OIT graduates are employed or continuing their education within six months of graduation and achieve some of the highest average starting-salaries in the state. Dr. Naganathan also noted that he seeks to improve students' overall skill sets so that real-world business and financial mat-

Hearing on Proposed Form-based Code for Coffee Creek Industrial Area

The Planning Commission is holding a public ▲ hearing on the proposed Coffee Creek Industrial Form-based Code on Wednesday, Jan. 10, 6 pm, at City Hall, 29799 SW Town Center Loop East.

The Coffee Creek Industrial Area, located in northwest area of Wilsonville, is planned as a Regionally Significant Industrial Area exclusively for employment uses such as light manufacturing, software engineering, warehouse uses, flex space, and research and development activities.

Under development for the past three years, the Form-based Code and accompanying Pattern Book establishes regulations and guidelines for street design and connectivity, site design and circulation, building form, and building architecture and landscaping for future development. The new code is intended to streamline development proposals based on clear guidance with a focus on high design-standards, functionality for industrial operations and a greater degree of pedestrian, bicycle and transit accessibility.

Library Board Hears About Major Remodeling Project and Expanding Partnerships

Wilsonville Public Library Director Pat Duke provided an update at the October 25 Library Board meeting on the progression of the upcoming library building remodeling project, which is designed to provide improved patron access to materials, computers and library services and update key technology services.

Duke reported that over 30 primary and subcontractors attended a pre-bid meeting to consider submitting bids that are due in November.

The target timeline for remodeling is between January and June 2018 in phases that allow the library to remain open and continue providing services.

The target timeline for remodeling is between January and June 2018 in phases that allow the library to remain open and continue providing services throughout the remodel. The estimated $1 million remodeling project is being paid for by the Library District of Clackamas County, formed by voters in 2008 with a permanent property tax rate of $ 0.3974 per thousand of assessed value; 100% of all funds collected are distributed to public libraries within Clackamas County for library operations.

Also in the Librarian's report were updates on the partnership with West Linn Library to serve the school district better, the Library Foundation's November fundraiser, and an early-learning literacy-training for local educators from two dozen daycare and preschool providers in Wilsonville by the outreach librarian.

Highlights of the 2018 Fiscal Year Workplan include expanding throughout the entire school district and adjacent unincorporated areas in partnership with West Linn Library Wilsonville's Dolly Parton Imagination Library program, which has 802 children enrolled and 805 having graduated. Additionally, elementary school are getting book-drops for public library books as a part of the partnership with the school district.

The Annual Library Report showed a 26 percent increase in digital collection circulation and a continued downturn in patron check-outs of physical items. Since 2012 this shift has been increasing and, as addressed in the workplan, the library is changing collection policies to best meet the needs of patrons. Pat Duke presented the Fiscal Year 2019 Goals and Objectives and an ongoing discussion with the library board will focus on those kinds of changes.

The next regular Library Board meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, Dec. 6, 6:30 pm, at the Library. For more information contact Pat Duke, Library Director, at 503-570-1590; Duke@wilsonvillelibrary.org.

City Prepares Winter Snow-and-Ice Removal Plan

Residents and Property Managers Required to Clear Sidewalks and Driveway Entrances

As winter weather moves in, the City's Public Works Department prepares to enact the snow-and-ice removal plan. The objective of the City's plan is to provide timely, efficient and cost-effective snow removal and ice control on key priority streets and sidewalks.

Road treatments include snow plowing and sanding. The City has chosen not to use anti-icing or de-icing chemicals on roadways due to environmental concerns and potential damage to vehicles and infrastructure.

During a major snow and ice event, Public Works crews may operate around the clock to ensure 24-hour coverage. The City has two trucks equipped with sanders and snow plows and additional walk-behind equipment for clearing sidewalks.

According to the plan, crews begin plowing roadways after approximately two inches of snow has accumulated. Snow plowing routes are shown on the adjacent map, where Priority 1 and 2 routes are kept clear to provide a transportation system to connect essential facilities such as schools, fire stations, public-transit facilities and the police station. Priority 3 routes are cleared or sanded to provide secondary connectivity and mitigate known problem areas.

The intent of plowing and sanding key roads is to provide a reasonably safe traveling surface. Bare or dry pavement should not be expected. The City plows close to the road surface, but high enough to avoid damaging raised street-pavement markers and crosswalk flashers.

City maintained sidewalks are cleared to provide a minimum four-foot-wide travel surface. Removal of ice from sidewalks occurs upon accumulation; removal of snow during the day follows within six hours after the snow stops falling. To help keep sidewalks clear, the City may apply a minimal amount of potassium chloride, calcium chloride or magnesium chloride product by hand or drop spreader.

Residents of Wilsonville are requested to support the City's snow and ice plan to achieve the best possible results for the community. During snow events and winter storm conditions, please keep parked vehicles off the City's snow and sanding routes.

Similar to most Oregon cities, all Wilsonville property owners of residences and commercial/industrial facilities are required by law to clear snow and ice from their sidewalks and driveway approaches, according to City Code.

Snow and ice should never be heaped over catch basins or culvert pipe openings, which can then become clogged and result in localized flooding, unsafe driving conditions and potential property damage. The City recommends that residents along plowing routes clear their frontage after the City snow plow has traveled through the area.

The Oregonian newspaper reported on January 12 that, "if pedestrians slip and fall on sidewalks lining your property, you could be sued in civil court not only for their hospital bills, but their pain and suffering. In reality, of the small batch of slip-and-fall lawsuits filed each year in the Portland area, almost all are against businesses — grocery stores, gas stations, business plazas — blamed for customers' falls in parking lots or on walkways that weren't shoveled, sanded or de-iced. Homeowners are hardly ever sued, but the possibility is still there."
