SPEAKER SERIES

ELIZABETH BRASHEAR

U.S. Immigrant

"FLEEING DISPLACEMENT & ESCAPING EL SALVADOR'S CIVIL WAR FOR LIFE IN AMERICA"

Elizabeth Brashear shares details of her harrowing journey to the U.S. border during El Salvador's violent Civil War, and her subsequent challenges to acclimate to life in America. Her daughter Karla, an immigration attorney, adds context on the recent influx of new migrants, the majority of whom are fleeing persecution in their home countries and desperately seeking asylum in the United States.
