CLOSED JULY 4

Library building now open for holds pickup

The library is open in a limited capacity, following the guidelines set by the Governor.

The only services available initially are pick-up of items on hold and help from librarians. Over time, we will phase in services as soon as we feel that we can do so safely.

At this time, the library will be open limited hours, and with the following safety precautions:

- Masks required
- Limited capacity
- Social distancing

If you are feeling sick, please stay home. Your holds will wait for you.

Due dates for all materials have been extended to July 31. Please return your library items when you are done with them.

Summer Reading Program and events online

Readers (and pre-readers) of all ages can participate by reading twenty minutes a day for twenty days.

Download a reading log or go digital with the new Summer Reading Program app "Beanstack". Log your reading, take the Science Exploration challenge, or go farther with the Merit Badge challenge and earn entries into fun prize drawings.

Programs for all ages will be online. Toddler

Time and Stories & Science (our summer Storytime) are live and interactive through Zoom. Baby Rhyme Time continues to post new videos on Fridays.

Teens have virtual events scheduled on Tuesdays at 2pm. Enjoy games, escape rooms, and more!

Adults can participate in our Book Club and Article Club online, as well as attend our new "Profiles" presentations. Sign up to receive the Zoom meeting codes.
