

When water is not shaded it is too warm for native fish to survive

No plants means no habitat for frogs, turtles, birds, and other wildlife

Without streamside plants topsoil washes away eroding stream banks

Trees and shrubs create healthy streamside habitat that shade and keep water clean

Trees and shrubs give privacy, improve aesthetics, and increase property value

Streamside plants provide food and habitat for aquatic animals

Plant and maintain trees near streams to keep the water cool!

